

We'll help protect your client's investment...

merry maids
Relax. It's Done.

...AND give you 5% commission.

Merry Maids are experienced at working with lettings agents to help keep their clients and property owners happy. All too often property owners are faced with the hassle of redecoration and a frantic search for someone to carry out a deep clean at the end of a tenancy in order to get their property back into a rentable state. That's where we can help. Merry Maids understand the co-ordination required when organising an end of tenancy deep clean and pride ourselves on being the preferred suppliers to many lettings agents.

Use Merry Maids because:

- We're professional, insured and we bring our own equipment
- We're flexible and experienced at dealing with end of tenancy cleans - nothing surprises us!
- We understand the lettings market and can ensure a swift end of tenancy change over
- We can also co-ordinate carpet, hard floor and upholstery cleaning where required
- We pay you 5% commission every time you sell an end of tenancy clean

We can help speed up the turnaround process...helping you to satisfy your clients. What's more, we often work within tenancy agreements and provide a regular cleaning service to keep on top of your clients' investments. Paid for by the tenant, we visit regularly to keep an eye on things and minimise nasty surprises!

For a smoother rental process and happy clients, give us a ring today to find out how we can work together.
